

"You're opening an office where?"

AMERICAN SAMOA

nowhere near

LONDON

NEW YORK

TOKYO

and that suits us just fine!

Why not make your accountant happy and take a tax-deductible business trip to see why American Samoa may be the best place for your next investment. We'll even write your trip report for you while you enjoy a complementary drink by the ocean, courtesy of the Department of Commerce.

Facts at a Glance

Transport hub of the South Pacific. Midway between Hawaii and New Zealand, with a land area slightly larger than Washington DC.

Unincorporated territory of the United States trading in U.S. currency.

Productive population of 55,519 with a labor force of 18,387, and unemployment at 9.2%

Exports at $418 million, almost exclusively from tuna cannery.

Imports at $270 million. Primarily cannery raw materials, food, petroleum, machinery and parts.

Opportunities

Technology & Renewable Energy

Cannery Support Products & Services

Tourism

Regional Trade & Transshipment

Light Industry (Import & Export)

Privatization of Local Government Services

Territorial Fisheries

Agriculture

Contact

Director Keniseli Lafaele
Department of Commerce
Executive Office Building, 2nd floor
Utulei AS 96799
American Samoa

Telephone: (+1 684) 633-5155
Fax: (+1 684) 633-4195
Email: keniseli.lafaele@doc.as
Website: www.doc.as

- Educated, English-speaking workforce
- Tax exemptions up to 11 years
- No gross receipt, property, or sales taxes
- Minimal restrictions on repatriation of funds
- Up to 50% wage subsidies for employee training
- Modern international transportation and telecommunications infrastructure
- Transshipment hub between the United States, Australasia, and Asia
- Preferred access to the United States market
- Economically and politically stable territory of the United States of America
- Flexible government access and support
- Rich 2,500 year-old cultural heritage that values family and welcomes newcomers like no other
- And, of course, a relaxed tropical paradise for your board meetings

